ABOUT BAZI THE FOUR PILLARS

BaZi (Eight Characters) or 'Four Pillars' as it is more commonly known in the West, is more than a sophisticated art of Chinese fortune telling. It is a traditional Chinese science of studying a person's destiny. Destiny is often regarded as the life path that is charted for us on the date and time of our birth by the Heavens. BaZi enables us to examine the potential and mysteries of our lives using our birth data.

By using BaZi calculations, we can explore the cyclical influence of our 'destiny' in important areas such as family, friends, relationships, wealth, fame, recognition, opportunities, career, studies, partnership, business and almost every other important aspect of our lives.

BaZi can be used to assess the relationship between the various aspects of our lives and to predict each of our individual life paths, giving us a 'big picture' scenario that allows us to make decisions and reach our potential.

The BAZi system has the reputation of being the most authentic means for predicting an individual's destiny. BaZi is also known as being the most accurate life destiny analysis available. Each & every BaZi reading is distinct for each individual.

BaZi can be used to know the ups and downs in your future, marriage prospects, career prospects, health, individual personality and potential. BaZi of destiny helps you to understand your weaknesses and strengths, as well as others. A BaZi consultation can assist you in making informed decisions in all aspects of your life whether it is business, career, job, relationship or health.

WHY BAZI

Why are you searching for a BaZi Consultation?

Maybe you have financial difficulties. Or perhaps you have just completed University and are looking for guidance in your career choices. It could be that you are hoping to climb the corporate ladder or that you are already there looking for other alternatives in life.

Perhaps you are currently in one of those crossroads in your life, on the verge of making a major decision that you believe could affect the rest of your life. Or perhaps you are a "super mom," feeling a little "lost" in trying to take care of your husband, children, home and career.

You could be in love or uncertain about love. You may be in an unfilling relationship and trying to make the decision to change or stay. Or perhaps you are selfless volunteer or a school teacher trying to make a positive influence in your community. Maybe you have been working at the same job for 20 years and want to do something else.

Perhaps, your health is not as good as you would like it to be, or maybe you find that there exists something unexplainable that is somehow impeding you from achieving your goals.

WHY BAZI

Perhaps, your health is not as good as you would like it to be, or maybe you find that there exists something unexplainable that is somehow impeding you from achieving your goals.

Wherever we are, whoever we are, there are always some decisions to be made. Often, we would like to see our options and weigh their pros and cons. Without a doubt, a large part of our lives remain indomitable by Destiny. For example, the place we are born, the community we live in, our designated family members or our family background – all of which are beyond our control and were given (or designated) to us the moment we are born. We can call this fate. However, in every one of these situations, there's almost always something you can do or say to make matters better . . . or worse. Everyone has a destiny.

But how we choose to change our destiny, is under our control. Destiny is not fixed, or unchangeable. We can still substantially improve the condition and quality of our destiny provided we have the right mental attitude, right actions and right methods.

Too much of one thing or too little of another, and suddenly your life is just out of balance.

Does this relate? If so, you would benefit from a Destiny Analysis. Let us help you forecast your life-path and provide several suggestions on how you can best maximize your innate potential and maybe even develop those not yet realized.

4 PILLARS OF DESTINY

It is said that if one believes in the self then nothing can discourage that person. Even a person from the lowest walk of life can become a tycoon. "Sure" a Chinese would say but before that let me see if his destiny permits him to be tycoon or not. The Chinese believe in the self, but more than that they believe in destiny. In Chinese metaphysics it is believed that everything is predetermined at the time of birth of a person. There are two classifications of astrology; Four Pillars of Destiny or Bazi and Purple Star astrology or Zi Wei Do Shu. Bazi literally means eight words or characters. Bazi is an ancient Chinese metaphysical technique for analyzing a person's fortune based on the birth data. It is quite different from Western astrology.

Four Pillars is calculated in conjunction with the 10,000 year Hsia calendar that follows a sexagenarian cycle of heavenly stems and earthly branches. There are ten heavenly stems (cosmic influence) represented by the different polarities (Yin Yang) of the elements. There are twelve earthly branches (earthly influence) comprising the Chinese zodiac viz. tiger, rabbit, dragon, snake, horse, goat, monkey, rooster, dog, pig, rat and ox. The sexagenarian cycle constitutes of pairing a heavenly stem with an earthly branch. The Chinese applied this cycle to count the months, days and even hours. The 10,000 year Hsia calendar, uses this sexagenarian cycle which affirms the elemental influence at any given point of time.

4 PILLARS OF DESTINY

A person's birth data is transformed into Four Pillars viz. year, month, day and hour. Each pillar formed by a pair of heavenly stem and earthly branch. Four Pillars is a technique to calculate and interpret the influence of the five elements viz. water, wood, fire, earth and metal; in a person's natal chart. Understanding the interaction between the five elements we can learn about the person's fortune and life. Four Pillars is further used to find the missing element or the element that will restore balance and harmony in the person's natal chart.

Can destiny be changed? The pre-determined part of destiny cannot be changed but there is a probable or variable part for which a person is himself responsible. The freedom of choice does exist, the freedom to take any decisions and bear full responsibility for that. Four pillars of destiny helps you to understand your weaknesses and strengths, as well as others. A person can then make decisions which are in tune with their natal chart. For example in 2007 there is a chance of losing money due to poor investments. What would you do? Not invest? Or maybe not as much as you would. Yes. This is how "Four pillars of destiny" helps you to be prepared for the good and the bad.

Or what if your birth chart shows that you have the potential to make a lot of money next year and you have a home business. What should you do wait for The lottery or expand your business or maybe start one. The Four pillars lets you know of your shortcomings, your earning potential and unseen dangers in your future. This way you can modify your future and enhance your life, thereby maximizing the positive and minimize the negative.

In short, Four pillars of destiny is a technique that is used to decode the elemental effect of our lives based on the time of the birth. This is further used to understand the attributes of the person, the good and bad fortune cycles of the natal chart. One can make decisions based on this information to enhance their luck.
